Fee Payment Options & Instructions

Instructions for Depositing Routine Fee for students. All the parents/Students can deposit their routine fee

1. Through Axis Bank Easy-Pay Slip or
2. Offline through their debit/credit cards (Please Visit our Campus and Pay your Fees Through EDC Machine)

Procedure for depositing routine fee through Axis Bank (EasyPay Slip) is as follows:

- The parent can either fill the Easy Pay Slip online and take a printout of deposit slip generated on A4 size paper or can directly download and take a printout of the pdf format of Easy Pay Slip to fill it up by hand and then use it for depositing fee in Axis Bank. (Due care must be taken while filling up the deposit slip).
- The parents can deposit the fee through demand draft, pay order (payable at the station where they intend to deposit the fee), cheque (payable at par) or cash.
- The bank will collect fee on our behalf and issue one folio of the receipt to the student mentioning the transaction ID and in this way the fee deposit process will be complete.
- The bank will send all the deposit details directly to Jagan Nath University. The parents are not required to submit deposit detail to the Institution.
- Only in case of any clarification, fee receipt can be sought from parents, so parents are advised to keep the fee deposit receipt very carefully for future reference. However the parents are advised to get confirmation of fee deposit after 3 working days from a/c dept.

Procedure for depositing fee through their debit/credit cards offline is as follows:

- A processing fee @ 2.50% in addition to the amount intended to be paid shall be charged from the students.
- A receipt shall be generated online once the payment is confirmed.
- Parents are advised to take a copy of the generated receipt and keep it safely for their own record & future reference.
